1965 UD ALUMNUS NAMED DEAN OF UD'S COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

DAYTON, Ohio, March 21, 1990--Paul J. Morman, a 1965 graduate of the University of Dayton, has been named dean of UD's College of Arts and Sciences. His appointment, which is effective July 1, was approved this week by the executive committee of the University's board of trustees.

Since 1987, Morman has served as dean of arts and sciences at the State University of New York (SUNY) College at Oswego, where he supervises 19 academic departments with 248 full-time and 28 part-time faculty. At UD, he will supervise 246 full- and part-time faculty in 18 academic departments.

"We're very pleased he accepted," said the Rev. James Heft, S.M., University provost. "Among other things, Dr. Morman has a strong administrative background in educational leadership, graduate degrees both in the humanities and the sciences and, as graduate of this institution, he already has a sense of its mission and purpose."

Morman, 47, earned a Ph.D. in history from Pennsylvania State University in 1973 and a master's degree in computer science from the Thomas J. Watson School of Engineering, Applied Science and Technology, SUNY at Binghamton, in 1984. He also earned a master's degree in history from Bowling Green State University in 1966.
